Sluban shipments to the UK after Brexit explained

Sluban UK & Ireland is based in the Republic of Ireland. We have an in-house export department that handles the customs and duties for shipments into the UK. You will not notice any difference between a shipment from one of your UK based suppliers or a shipment from us.

Do I have to pay import duties?

No, this is already included in the price.

Do I have to fill out any forms or do anything else?

No, our in-house export department handles all this.

Do I have to pay VAT?

Yes, you pay 20% UK VAT that is included on the invoice. You can claim this back if you are VAT registered.

Do I need an EORI number or registration?

No, we do the import into the UK. We do not need your EORI number.

Do I have to pay shipping charges?

No, this is included in the price.

Do I pay in Euro or Sterling?

You pay in Sterling into our sterling account. This is a normal domestic payment for you.

Does shipment take a long time?

No, shipment takes between 2 and 5 business days on average.
